

UNISON

the union for

registered nurses

Nursing is an immensely rewarding role. Registered nurses carry huge responsibility, delivering vital care and interventions to patients and populations.

UNISON has a strong nursing membership. We are here to speak up for you and to make sure you are supported at work.

We have:

- The largest network of workplace representatives and stewards, so you can always find support at work
- A dedicated Professional Services Unit, ready if you ever require representation to the NMC
- Regular professional development and learning opportunities for nurses to assist with your revalidation

Our elected nursing and midwifery committee, made up of nurses like you from around the UK, oversee our professional strategy and policy for nurses.

UNISON is the strongest union for registered nurses. Join today.
