

UNISON

the union for the whole nursing family

It takes the whole nursing team to provide excellent patient care and treatment.

Whether you're a registered nurse, nursing associate, assistant practitioner or nursing support staff, everyone has a vital role to play.

UNISON has a strong nursing membership. We're here to speak up for you and to make sure you're supported at work.

We have:

- The largest network of reps and stewards, so you can always find support at work
- A dedicated Professional Services Unit for all of our members on professional registers
- Regular nursing professional development and learning opportunities

Our elected nursing and midwifery committee, made up of clinicians like you from around the UK, oversee our professional strategy and policy for the nursing family.

UNISON is the union for the whole nursing family. Join today.
